We're driving to DC Sunday morning! Taking I-80. We still have space in the car. Want to join us? Want to drive with us? From Utah or on the way. DM me. Take America back!

1 Thank you for the invite Pede! We'd have to get off I-80, but we'll consider it. When exactly are you going to be there?

-1 Not sure I would want to hitch a ride with some random person from the internet. I would be offering rides to random people on the internet either. You never know who you will end up with.

2 After you DM us, we have a strict vetting process, pede. Trust me. I'm not gonna drive with a commie to DC, or anywhere else lol. I can't promise anything about helicopter rides, though. 😂
